

cents (¢)

cents (¢)

A penny is one cent (1¢).

nickel

Fold here

nickel

5¢ or 5 cents

dime

dime

10¢ or 10 cents

coins

coins

1¢

5¢

10¢

25¢

50¢

$1

penny

Fold here

penny

1¢ or 1 cent

half-dollar

half-dollar

50¢, $0.50, or 50 cents

greatest value

greatest value

The coin that has the greatest value is the one that is worth the most.

The dime has the greatest value.

quarter

Fold here

quarter

25¢ or 25 cents

decimal point

decimal point

A decimal point separates dollars from cents.

$1.25

decimal point

least value

least value

The coin that has the least value is the one that is worth the least.

The penny has the least value.

dollar coin

Fold here

dollar coin

$1.00 or 100¢

dollar bill

dollar bill

$1.00 or 100¢

tally mark

tally mark

Tally marks are used to record data.

cats dogs

↑
tally marks

Fold here

dollar sign

dollar sign

The symbol that is placed before the numbers when you are writing an amount of money.

$3.50

↑
dollar sign